All employees are to be advised of the revisions of the handbooks or manuals and of any implications for existing personnel.

The Superintendent will ensure that parent(s)/guardian(s) of students in Title I schools are informed of their right to know the professional qualifications of their child's teacher and will describe where and how this information may be obtained. The Superintendent will monitor Title I schools to ensure that parent(s)/guardian(s) of all students are notified when those students are taught for 4 or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified as defined by law.

Staffing patterns will be reviewed annually to ensure that poor and minority students are not, at higher rates than are other children in the District, taught by inexperienced, unqualified, or out-of-field teachers. If such patterns are noted, strategies to correct the problem will be developed.

5220 Staff-Student Relations

All District employees are expected to maintain relationships with members of the student body that are nothing but positive in their intent, conducive to an effective educational environment, do not violate appropriate staff/student interactions under law, or the policies of the Board, and do not create possible liabilities to the employee or the District. Employees are reminded that a “friendly” approach to students must be tempered by the fact that employees are, and should remain, authority figures in the eyes of students. All District employees are responsible for the regulation of student conduct.

Threats to Students

Any District employee who threatens to inflict, inflicts, or causes to be inflicted, deliberate physical pain by any means to any student, may be disciplined according to provisions which may be found in the current negotiated master contract or as prescribed by the Board.

Employees found to be in violation of this policy by the Board may be subject to: a letter of reprimand, suspension – either with or without pay as allowable by law or collective bargaining agreements, and/or termination of employment.

Communication devices issued by the District may include, for example, cellular telephones, walkie-talkies, personal digital assistants (PDA's) or laptop computers with "beaming capabilities," citizens band radios, either installed in vehicles or hand-held, and pagers/beepers.

Employees in receipt of District-issued equipment shall be held responsible for the safekeeping of the equipment and exercise reasonable efforts to see that the equipment is not lost, stolen, or damaged. Use of cellular telephones or audible pagers/beepers should be curtailed during instructional time or at school-sponsored programs, meetings, in-services, parent(s)/guardian(s) conferences, or any other time when there would be a reasonable expectation of quiet attentiveness.

5357 Family and Medical Leave

The Board shall comply with the 1993 Family and Medical Leave Act as amended.

Employees with at least 1 full year of service and at least 1,250 hours of work in the last 12 months are entitled to unpaid leave of up to 12 weeks in any one-year period for the birth/adoption of a child or for serious personal or family health reasons. A qualified employee who is the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin to a member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list for a serious injury or illness, may also take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for that member of the Armed Forces. A qualified employee may take FMLA leave of up to 12 weeks in response to a covered family member's, "qualifying exigency," that arises out of a call to active duty service in support of a contingency operation.

Leaves may be continuous or intermittent with the agreement of the employee and the Superintendent. Benefits shall continue during the leave upon payment of appropriate contributions.

An FMLA leave is limited to 12 or 26 weeks in any 12-month period. The 12-month period will be measured on a "rolling" 12-month basis, from the employee's last use of FMLA leave.

Upon conclusion of the leave, the employee shall be returned to the same position or an equivalent position. If the employee does not return as scheduled, termination from the position may result.

5357-R Family and Medical Leaves

5357-R

Family and Medical Leave Act Administrative Procedures

The following sets forth the procedures in effect for leaves of absence under the Family Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA). Employees shall be granted unpaid leave for any of the following reasons:

1. Up to 12 weeks per year to care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care; or
2. Up to 12 weeks per year to care for the employee's spouse, child or parent who has a serious health condition; or
3. Up to 12 weeks per year for a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform essential functions of the employee's job; or
4. Up to 26 weeks per year to care for the employee's spouse, child, parent, or next of kin who is a covered service member with a serious injury or illness; or
5. Up to 12 weeks per year because of a qualifying exigency, as defined by federal law or rule, arising out of the fact that the employee's spouse, child, parent or next of kin who is a covered service member is on active duty or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States in support of a contingency operation.

An FMLA leave is limited to 12 or 26 weeks in any 12-month period. The 12-month period will be measured on a "rolling" 12-month basis, from the employee's last use of FMLA leave. Each time an employee takes FMLA leave, the remaining leave entitlement would be any balance of the 12 or 26 weeks that has not been used during the immediately preceding twelve months. For example, if an employee has taken eight weeks of leave during the past twelve months, an additional four weeks of leave could be taken.

Section 5000 – Personnel

5357-R-2

An FMLA leave taken for the birth or placement of a child may not be taken more than 12 months after the child's birth or placement. Subject to any applicable exceptions contained in the Family and Medical Leave Act, the employee will be restored to his/her original position or an equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits and other employment terms. The use of FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefits that accrued prior to the start of an FMLA leave.

Eligibility

Employees are eligible for FMLA leave if they have worked for the District for at least one year, and for 1250 hours over the past 12 month period. A "key employee", defined as a salaried employee who is among the highest paid 10% of the employees employed within 75 miles of the work site, may not be eligible for FMLA leave if restoring the employee to the same position would result in substantial and grievous injury to the District's operation.

Notice and Certification

Employees are required to provide advance leave notice and medical certification as set forth below:

1. Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the leave when the leave is "foreseeable". If 30 days notice of a foreseeable leave is not provided, the District may delay the leave until 30 days after the notice is provided.
2. The District reserves the right to require medical certification to support a request for an FMLA leave because of an employee's serious health condition or the serious health condition of a family member. Such certification must be provided within 15 days of the leave request. If such certification is not provided, the District may delay the leave until such certification is received.
3. When a leave is due to an employee's serious health condition or that of a family member, the District reserves the right to require re-certification of the serious health condition at least every 30 days, and as otherwise permitted by the FMLA.

Section 5000 – Personnel

5357-R Family and Medical Leaves

5357-R-3

Also, the District will require employees to provide periodic updates of status and intent to return to work.

4. The District reserves the right to require second and/or third opinions by a health care provider (at the District's expense) as provided in the FMLA.
5. If an FMLA leave is due to an employee's serious health condition, the employee will be expected to provide certification from a "health care provider" of fitness to return to work prior to the expiration of the FMLA leave.
6. If FMLA leave is to be taken due to either the injury or illness of a covered service member, or because of a service member's qualifying exigency, the 30 day notice provisions generally apply. The employee will be required to provide documentation from a medical provider or such documentation of the qualifying exigency as the federal government may provide.

Benefits

Medical benefits will continue during FMLA leave on the same basis as during regular employment. Any co-payments usually required for medical benefits will be required during an FMLA leave. Failure to begin co-payments within 30 days of the start of the leave or failure to continue co-payments during the leave may lead to termination of the medical benefits.

If an employee fails to return to work after FMLA leave entitlement has expired, the District may recover premiums that were paid for maintaining group health plan coverage during any period of unpaid FMLA leave. If the reason that the employee does not return to work is due to (a) continuation, recurrence, or onset of a serious health condition that would entitle the employee to FMLA leave or (b) "other circumstances beyond the control of the employee" as defined in the FMLA, the District will not recover the premiums paid during unpaid FMLA leave.

Section 5000 – Personnel

5357-R Family and Medical Leaves

5357-R-4

Paid Leave Time and FMLA Leaves

The District requires that an employee taking FMLA leave for any qualifying purpose use all available accrued paid time as part of the FMLA leave, including accrued sick leave, personal business leave, and vacation. For example, an employee with five (5) days accrued sick leave and five (5) days accrued vacation who takes a 12-week FMLA leave will be required to take two weeks paid leave (using sick leave and vacation days) and ten weeks unpaid FMLA leave.

"Serious Health Condition" Defined

Regulations define "serious health condition as an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves:

1. Any period of incapacity or treatment in connection with or consequent to inpatient care (i.e., an overnight stay) in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility;
2. Any period of incapacity requiring absence from work, school, or other regular daily activities of more than three calendar days, that also involves continuing treatment by (or under the supervision of) a health care provider;
3. "Continuing treatment", as defined in the FMLA, by (or under the supervision of) a "health care provider" (as defined in the FMLA) for a chronic or long-term health condition that is incurable or so serious that, if not treated, would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three calendar days; or
4. "Continuing treatment" by a "health care provider" for prenatal care.

A serious health condition does not include absences for less than three days for short-term conditions for which treatment and recovery are brief. Similarly, voluntary or cosmetic treatments are not a serious health condition unless they require inpatient care.

Section 5000 – Personnel

5357-R Family and Medical Leaves

5357-R-5

Intermittent Leaves

Employees may take FMLA leave on an intermittent basis, with appropriate medical justification, for employee's serious health condition or the serious health condition of a spouse, child or parent. Intermittent leave is not available for the care of a child after birth or placement. Where intermittent leave is "foreseeable", the District expects that the employee will try to schedule leave to avoid undue disruption of operations. The District reserves the right to place an employee seeking intermittent leave in an alternative position that better accommodates the employee's intermittent leave schedule.

Alternate Employment during an FMLA Leave

An employee may not engage in employment, other than employment with the District during an FMLA leave. Employees who are found to have engaged in such alternate employment will be subject to termination.

Instructional Employees

Employees who are employed principally in an instructional capacity (for example, teachers, coaches and driving instructors) are subject to the following limitations with respect to FMLA leave.

1. Intermittent leave or leave on a reduced schedule

An instructional employee who applies for a foreseeable FMLA leave which would result in the employee being on leave for more than 20% of the remaining working days in the period during which the leave would extend may be required to elect between either:

- a. Taking a leave for periods of a particular duration, not to exceed the duration of the planned medical treatment; or

Section 5000 – Personnel

5357-R Family and Medical Leaves

5357-R-6

- b. Transfer temporarily to an available alternative position offered by the District for which the employee is qualified, which has equivalent pay and benefits, and which better accommodates the recurring periods of leave than the employee's regular position.¹⁰
2. Periods near the conclusion of an academic term

An instructional employee who begins a leave more than five weeks before the end of a semester may be required to continue on leave until the end of the semester if the leave will last at least three weeks, and the return to work would occur within the last three weeks of the term.

An instructional employee who begins a leave for a purpose other than his/her own serious health condition during the five week period before the end of a semester may be required to continue on leave until the end of the semester if the leave will last more than two weeks, and the return to work would occur within the last two weeks of the semester.

An instructional employee who begins a leave for a purpose other than his/her own serious health condition during the three week period before the end of the semester and the duration of the leave is more than five working days may be required to continue on leave until the end of the semester.

Collective Bargaining Agreement Provisions

To the extent the above procedures conflict with a collective bargaining agreement applicable to the employee, the collective bargaining agreement shall govern to the extent permitted by law.

Responsibility

The Superintendent will be responsible for implementing FMLA procedures. FMLA requests shall be made in writing to the Superintendent.

¹⁰ The election only applies if the employee provides at least 30 days advance notice of the foreseeable leave.

APPENDIX A

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

- For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or call to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered servicemember during a single 12-month period. A covered servicemember is a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the servicemember medically unfit to perform his or her duties for which the servicemember is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list.

Benefits and Protections

During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee's health coverage under any "group health plan" on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's leave.

Eligibility Requirements

Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least one year, for 1,250 hours over the previous 12 months, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Definition of Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave

An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave

Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer's normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities

Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer's normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave.

Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities

Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees' rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

5370 Communicable Diseases - Staff and Students (Cf. 8510)

In order to minimize the spread of contagious diseases among students and staff, the District will cooperate, fully, with the Saginaw County Health Department to enforce adherence to the Michigan Health Code for the prevention, control, and containment of communicable diseases.

A decision to close schools due to communicable disease outbreaks shall be made by the Superintendent, or designee, in consultation with the Saginaw County Health Department medical staff and/or for review to the review team.

A student with or carrying a communicable and/or chronic infectious disease has all rights, privileges, and services provided by law and the District's policies.¹

Approved: February 8, 2010

LEGAL REF: MCL 333.5111; 333.5131; Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, MDE Bulletin, September 23, 1999

Students with contagious diseases may also qualify for special education under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20. U.S.C. § 1400 et seq.)

Decisions to place a student in a class outside regular classes due to infectious disease must be based on medical evaluations indicating a need to protect the health and safety of others. Community High School District 155 v Denz, 463 N.E.2nd 998 (2nd Dist. 1984).

Cases involving contagious diseases are highly fact-specific. Generally, the appropriate treatment of a student depends on the severity of the disease and the risk of infecting others, but in all cases, legal counsel should be consulted.

The Board has the legal responsibility of approving the staffing levels for all categories of District personnel. In addition, they are responsible for the formal approval of all teacher and administrative contracts. Once the Board through the budget adoption process has approved staffing levels, the Board delegates to the Superintendent the authority to recruit, screen, select, and recommend the employment of all staff members to fill the positions approved in the budget, and to sign employment contracts on the Board's behalf. In carrying out this responsibility, the Superintendent shall involve appropriate administrative and/or non-certified staff members as needed and use special criteria developed by the Board and/or staff.

Before the issuance of an actual written contract to any new teacher or administrator, the Superintendent shall bring his/her recommendations to the Board for approval.

General Procedure for Handling Complaints about a Member of the Professional Staff (Cf. 9450)

Complaints will be investigated fully and fairly, and the employee's rights to due process¹³ shall be protected at all times under these rules, applicable law, or in compliance with appropriate collective bargaining agreements.

Whenever a complaint is made directly to the Board as a whole or to a Board member as an individual, it shall be referred to the administration for study and possible solution. The employee involved will be informed and shall be given every opportunity for explanation, comment and presentation of the facts as the employee sees them. The employee shall also be given the opportunity to meet with the person(s) making the complaint if the employee so desires.

The employee involved may request a closed session of the Board for a full study and decision by this body. Statutory provisions for closed sessions of the Board shall be observed.

Generally all parties involved, including the administration, will be asked to attend such a meeting to present additional facts and clarify the issues. Hearsay and rumor shall be disregarded as will any emotional display.

The Board shall conduct such meetings in as fair and just a manner as possible. The Board may request a disinterested third party to act as moderator to help the Board reach a mutually satisfactory solution.

¹³ Due process includes both substantive and procedural due process. Substantive due process protects employees from arbitrary, capricious, irrational, or unreasonable action (requires that a rule or a disciplinary decision must be rationally related to a legitimate state interest). Procedural due process includes the concepts of proper notice to the accused and the right to a hearing before a property interest is taken away. The extent of the procedures due depends on the nature of the interest being taken away, i.e., the more that could potentially be taken away, the more procedural protections must be provided. If the maximum penalty that could be imposed is relatively small, only a small amount of procedural due process is required.

The Superintendent shall establish administrative rules, regulations, and procedures that are necessary to keep the District in compliance with the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, and the federal regulations pertaining thereto.

Section 5000 – Personnel

5715-R Fair Labor Standards Act Compliance

5715-R

As a District, we will make every effort to comply with the FLSA¹⁵ through attention to the following administrative rules and regulations.¹⁶

Any employee found to be knowingly and willfully negligent in his/her attention to these rules will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

Employee Overtime

No employee eligible under the FLSA shall be allowed to claim “overtime” pay unless that pay has been authorized, in advance and in writing, by the Superintendent, or his/her designee.

General Business Practices

It shall be the responsibility of District staff to see that the following business practices are followed:

1. Job descriptions are to be kept up-to-date to reflect the actual duties of employees.
2. All District policies or practices regarding compensation or overtime are to be in writing. There are to be no “informal” understandings.

¹⁵ Under the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), the federal government has required that covered employers pay one and one half times an employee's hourly wage for all hours worked in excess of 40 in one week.

The consequences of violating the Fair Labor Standards Act can be severe involving civil or even criminal actions against those who violate the Act.

The Department of Labor has the authority to assess a $1,000 civil monetary penalty per employee for each repeated or willful violation of the law. The statute of limitations on FLSA claims are generally two years; however the limitations period is three years for "willful" violations. Establishing a "willful" violation is relatively easy, as the standard is whether the employer "knew" or had a "reckless disregard" for knowing whether its conduct violated its overtime obligations under the law. Allowing covered employees to work beyond 40 hours per week without added compensation or mutual agreement for compensatory time could mean, in addition, that the District is accruing liability for payment to the Michigan Public School Employees Retirement System.

Apart from civil penalties, the Department of Labor may also pursue criminal penalties for willful violations. An employer may be fined $10,000 for a first willful offense of the Act. A second conviction may result in incarceration for up to six months. Finally, individual supervisors may be held liable under the Act subject to the penalties above.

¹⁶ The information to develop these administrative rules was provided by Mr. John Gierak, J.D. of Clark Hill, PLC, Attorneys at Law. MASB thanks Mr. Gierak and Clark Hill, PLC for giving MASB permission to use their materials in the development of these administrative rules relative to policy 5715.

Section 5000 – Personnel

5715-R Fair Labor Standards Act Compliance

5715-R-2

3. If there are employees who work more than one job, the two jobs are not considered separately for FLSA purposes even if there are two contracts with different terms and compensation.
4. Buildings and departments are to keep accurate FLSA records.
5. Compensatory time – Any agreement for compensatory time must be reached in advance of the work being done, and must be reached with the employees' collective bargaining representative, if they are so represented. Under any compensatory time rule or collective bargaining agreement, the employee may only accrue up to 160 overtime hours (or 240 comp time hours), thereafter any overtime hours worked must be paid. Employees must be permitted to use comp time, if allowed at all, within a "reasonable period" after the request is made so long as using it does not "unduly disrupt" the normal operations of the District. In addition, if an employee quits or is terminated all unpaid comp time must be paid to the employee.
6. Overtime will accrue for non-exempt employees who serve as volunteer coaches on a regular basis or schedule. Supervisors are to be aware of the possibility of FLSA overtime rules for such employees.
7. Bus Drivers whose routes may take longer than the hours the driver is scheduled to work are to be paid for actual hours worked. Possible violations of overtime rules are to be scrutinized by supervisors.
8. Non-exempt employees who have a 30-minute or more lunch but are expected to eat with students shall be considered to be "on duty" and must be paid accordingly. The lunch must be duty free or the employee must be compensated for the time.
9. FLSA time records are to be retained for at least 3 years.

Section 5000 – Personnel

5715-R Fair Labor Standards Act Compliance

5715-R-3

10. No matter what the working relationship might be between the employee and the supervisor, there are to be no “routine exceptions” granted to formal FLSA policies.
11. It is permissible for school employees to volunteer their services to assist with “occasional and sporadic” school programs or functions without accruing overtime.
12. Employees are not to be allowed to keep their own time records without supervisory oversight.
13. School employees working functions held at school, but sponsored by others may be accruing “overtime.” Such employment shall be carefully supervised and monitored to avoid possible FLSA violations.
14. Breaks - all breaks must be 20 minutes or more and duty free, or paid unless otherwise stipulated in a collective bargaining agreement to be longer than 20 minutes.
15. Lunches must be 30 minutes or more and must be duty free. Employees should not “work through lunch” and/or “eat at their desk” even if doing so on a supposedly “voluntarily” basis.
16. Employees that stay after scheduled hours because they have to take tickets at an athletic event, have “too much work to do, etc.” are working overtime for purposes of FLSA and such overtime must be approved in advance, in writing, by the supervisor.
17. All non-exempt employees are to be required to sign their time records.

Section 5000 – Personnel

5715-R Fair Labor Standards Act Compliance

5715-R-4

18. Non-exempt employees expected or required to attend training sessions during the summer or on weekends during the school year, are probably accruing overtime and must be paid or mutual arrangements must be made for compensatory time.
19. Employees are to be directed to report for work at their scheduled time and leave at their scheduled time. The practices of “coming to work early and/or staying late” in order to get more work done must be discouraged.
20. Non-exempt employees are not to “take work home” nor be expected to work, or even volunteer, on a regular basis at early morning breakfast programs, or regularly participate in opening/closing school; or in setting up and cleaning up after functions/events.

Responsibilities of Administrators/Supervisors

1. The information in these administrative rules is to be included in employee handbooks with a clear explanation of FLSA laws.
2. Make sure the FLSA posters are in places where non-exempt employees can readily see the posters. The FLSA requires the posters to be in "conspicuous places."
3. Attend training when offered and read information distributed about how records should be completed and how records should be maintained (note: all time records should be maintained for at least three years).
4. Make sure all schools, departments, organizations, etc. keep accurate time records signed by all employees. Record keeping is the first key to FLSA compliance.

Section 5000 – Personnel

5715-R Fair Labor Standards Act Compliance

5715-R-5

It is important to understand that the records must reflect actual time worked. Recording scheduled hours for each workday wherein the employee simply initials is not sufficient time-keeping records. Make sure that all employees are notified that the time-keeping records must reflect actual time worked. Wherever possible, electronic time clocks shall be used to record time worked.

5. Review time records carefully to minimize employment for more than 40 hours per workweek by support personnel. Review should occur at least quarterly.
6. Require written approval before overtime is authorized and require employees to sign time logs or records.
7. Impose appropriate discipline, if an employee works overtime without prior written approval from a supervisor.
8. Examine the structure of school-operated after-school daycare programs and avoid employment of any personnel for a total or more than 40 hours a week in all jobs worked because in most instances, a program at school is going to be considered school employment even if the program is federally or privately funded outside of the school budget.
9. Minimize (or, if possible, eliminate) dual assignments where the normal combined number of hours to be worked exceeds 40 per workweek. Adopt a system-wide policy regarding dual employment.
10. Use certified employees in coaching positions and as bus drivers when possible (band trips, athletic events, etc.).

Section 5000 – Personnel

5715-R Fair Labor Standards Act Compliance

5715-R-6

11. In certain limited instances, request Department of Labor audit. This decision should always be made with the approval of the Superintendent and with assistance of counsel.
12. Be careful with hours worked by non-exempt personnel who assist with after-school athletic or school organization programs.

Internal Employment Audit

At the discretion and direction of the Superintendent, the District shall conduct an “Internal Employment Audit” regarding FLSA compliance on occasion. Such audits can detect and correct illegal or costly employment practices before the District is sued or audited by an external agency. A basic audit will consist of the following:

1. A general review of all District employment policies and employee handbooks (FLSA and other wage and hour policies, anti-discrimination and anti-harassment policies, policies pertaining to leave of absence, discipline and discharge, workers' compensation, workplace violence, etc.).
2. Spot checks to ensure appropriate employment postings are actually posted.
3. A spot review of employment records and retention to ensure compliance with federal and state law, as well as accuracy.
4. A brief review of the employment forms used by the District.
5. An overall review of whether, at the building or departmental level, written policies, and administrative rules are being properly followed and implemented.
6. A review of the District's job descriptions.
7. A review of the District's hiring procedures.

Results of any internal audit will be made known to the Board of Education for their information and review.
